

I am very concerned that if SBC and other telcos are not required to provide access to all ISPs to provide DSL to these independent ISPs such as Sonic.net, we customers could suffer higher prices and diminished service with the present competitive situation.